

Competition

Volume 1

The law and leading lawyers worldwide

2007/08

Cross-border
Country Q&A

PLC Which lawyer?

Lawyer profiles

✓✓	Neil P Motenko	Nutter McClennen & Fish	Primarily a litigator, but also co-chair of the firm's anti-trust practice group, with significant experience in anti-trust litigation and counselling. Well known for his extensive experience in the healthcare sector.
✓✓	William Patton	Ropes & Gray	A senior litigator, regularly advising clients on anti-trust and IP litigation.
✓✓	Thane Scott	Bingham McCutchen LLP	An impressive litigator at state and federal levels, with solid experience of anti-trust and trade regulation matters. Is particularly strong in technology-intensive industries.
✓	Ruth Dowling	Edwards Angell Palmer & Dodge	More on the anti-trust litigation side. Is involved in the insurance markets, where she advises on general anti-trust and bid-rigging allegations.
✓	David Martland	Nixon Peabody LLP	Rising figure in the competition law market.
✓	Jane Willis	Ropes & Gray	A litigation specialist, spending a significant proportion of her time on anti-trust litigation cases, with some merger and counselling work as well.
✓	Lisa Wood	Foley Hoag LLP	Primarily known for her securities litigation and accountancy malpractice work, also advising on purely anti-trust matters on the litigation side.

CHICAGO

	Name	Firm	Best used for
✓✓✓ 	Nathan Eimer	Eimer Stahl Klevorn & Solberg	Highly-recommended anti-trust and securities litigation lawyer in this fine anti-trust boutique. Also does some merger counselling and is particularly experienced in the heavy industry and petrochemicals sectors.
✓✓✓	Andrew Langan	Kirkland & Ellis LLP	A fine litigator, advising on numerous anti-trust and products liability cases including class actions. Also advises on FTC investigations, with particular strengths in the petroleum and oil and gas sectors.
✓✓✓	Andrew Marovitz	Mayer Brown	Has a strong civil and criminal anti-trust litigation practice and co-chairs the firm's litigation practice group.
✓✓✓	Mark McLaughlin	Mayer Brown	General counsel at the firm, offering general competition and anti-trust advice, mostly within a transactional and franchise practice. Advises on some anti-trust litigation.
✓✓✓	James Mutchnik	Kirkland & Ellis LLP	Authentic criminal defence lawyer with a wealth of experience in anti-trust and trade regulation. Recently involved in a challenging price-fixing case in the lysine market.
✓✓✓	Robert Robertson	Kirkland & Ellis LLP	A talented litigator, whose two main areas of focus are anti-trust and IP.
✓✓✓ 	John Treece	Sidley Austin LLP	A fine anti-trust litigator, with particular expertise in the pharmaceutical and consumer products sectors.
✓✓	Lee Abrams	Mayer Brown	Litigation, counselling and franchising practice, with experience of anti-trust matters.
✓✓ 	Jack Bierig	Sidley Austin LLP	General competition law specialist with much experience of trade associations, such as in the vehicles industry. Also known for his work in the healthcare, food and drug sectors.
✓✓ 	Roxane Busey	Baker & McKenzie	Praised for her good understanding of anti-trust law, with an emphasis on merger control. Also has a significant healthcare practice.
✓✓	Thomas Campbell	Baker & McKenzie	Anti-trust, business and criminal litigation practice, including class actions. Does some plaintiff work.

✓✓	Joel Chefitz	McDermott Will & Emery LLP	An experienced litigator, offering a wealth of experience at this Chicago firm, with particular strengths in anti-trust and securities litigation.
✓✓ 	Charles W Douglas	Sidley Austin LLP	Highly reputed anti-trust litigator and managing partner of the firm, counting long-term clients in the technology, telecommunications and IP industries. Also does securities litigation.
✓✓	Robert Finke	Mayer Brown	Has a solid litigation and advisory practice with an emphasis on anti-trust litigation. His advisory work is both transactional and behavioural, the latter focusing on pricing and distribution matters.
✓✓	Lee Freeman	Jenner & Block LLP	Good general commercial litigation lawyer with a focus on anti-trust and securities issues. Sometimes appears on the plaintiff side.
✓✓	Robert Joseph	Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal LLP	A reputed counsellor on a wide range of conduct, distribution and franchising matters. Also advises on anti-trust litigation including class actions, as well as IP/anti-trust issues.
✓✓ 	Andrew Klevorn	Eimer Stahl Klevorn & Solberg	General litigation practice with a strong emphasis on antitrust matters. Focuses on class actions, grand jury investigations and merger litigation.
✓✓	Steven Kowal	Bell Boyd & Lloyd	Strong emphasis on criminal litigation matters including cartels following his time at the DoJ. Has handled criminal investigations in the healthcare, building/construction, food, plumbing and computer chip industries.
✓✓	David Marx	McDermott Will & Emery LLP	Has a litigation-heavy practice, particularly on the criminal side. Also has general advisory anti-trust experience, notably in the healthcare industry.
✓✓	Mark McCareins	Winston & Strawn LLP	Has established solid client relationships in the IP field, with a general litigation practice focusing on IP and anti-trust matters. Also does trade regulation advisory work.
✓✓ 	Thomas F Ryan	Sidley Austin LLP	Broad litigation practice including anti-trust, securities and environmental law.
✓✓	William Schopf	Schopf & Weiss	Considered by peers a first-chair trial lawyer. His primary area of practice remains anti-trust, where he advises on horizontal agreements and behaviour (sometimes on the plaintiff side but mostly for the defence).
✓✓ 	Michael Sennett	Jones Day	Recommended litigation and advisory practice, including mergers and conduct matters. Experienced in the pharmaceutical, healthcare and biotech industries.
✓✓	Alan Silberman	Sonnenschein Nath & Rosenthal LLP	Experienced litigation and advisory practitioner, particularly known for his work on distribution and franchising issues.
✓✓	Paul Slater	Sperling & Slater	A very smart and effective commercial litigator with a solid anti-trust litigation practice, particularly on the plaintiff side.
✓✓	Dan Webb	Winston & Strawn LLP	Solid anti-trust litigator.
✓ 	Jeffery Cross	Freeborn & Peters	Known for his encyclopaedic knowledge of anti-trust law, with a respected general litigation practice, handling anti-trust cases as well as franchise and dealership issues.
✓	Norman Hirsch	Jenner & Block LLP	Splits his practice equally between anti-trust litigation and general advisory work, including anti-monopoly cases, distribution and pricing issues.
✓ 	William Linklater	Baker & McKenzie	Well-regarded criminal and civil litigator with a strong emphasis on international cartel prosecutions and other criminal matters.
✓	Eugene F Zelek Jr	Freeborn & Peters	Offers clients strategic counselling, primarily in the areas of pricing, competitive collaborations, distribution channels and other marketing matters.