

Antitrust Litigation

Multi-national companies with household names come to Eimer Stahl to defend them against antitrust lawsuits at both the federal and state level. Our attorneys have litigated antitrust cases across the country and the globe, and our firm is consistently recognized for its expertise in this area of law. Eimer Stahl regularly takes the lead in joint defense groups defending large civil antitrust class actions, and has a record of stopping such suits at the pleading stage. Our attorneys' deep knowledge and experience handling antitrust matters engenders creative solutions, attention to detail, and a success rate that elevate Eimer Stahl above many larger firms.
