

Amy Miller is Of Counsel at Eimer Stahl and based in the firm’s Madison office. She focuses her practice on appellate and complex litigation and is well versed in litigating high-stakes appeals and disputes in various courts, including the United States Supreme Court, federal courts of appeals, the Wisconsin Supreme Court and the Wisconsin Court of Appeals.

In 2016, having previously served as a legal intern with the Wisconsin Department of Justice, Amy joined the Office of the Solicitor General, a specialized task force equipped to handle the state’s most difficult matters. During that time she was an integral member in successfully litigating dozens of appeals from environmental disputes to criminal matters. Amy has also volunteered her time working for multiple legal aid organizations in Wisconsin and Indiana, helping to provide legal services to low income individuals and individuals with disabilities.

NEWS

---

Eimer Stahl Attorneys Successfully Help Reverse District Court Decision in *United States v. Dingwall
August 18, 2021

Amy Miller and Ryan Walsh File Important Seventh Circuit Brief on Behalf of End Domestic Abuse Wisconsin and the Wisconsin Coalition Against Domestic Abuse
September 30, 2020

PRACTICE FOCUS

---

Appellate
Contract and Commercial Disputes
Government Regulation
Labor & Employment
Pro Bono

EDUCATION

---

J.D., University of Notre Dame Law School, cum laude
B.A., University of Wisconsin

ADMISSIONS

---

Wisconsin
United States District Court for the Eastern District of Wisconsin
United States District Court for the Western District of Wisconsin
United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit
Supreme Court of the United States