

The Legal 500 Recognizes Eimer Stahl for Prominent National Antitrust Work

June 15, 2022

The Legal 500 has recognized Eimer Stahl in its United States 2022 rankings for the firm's Antitrust: Civil Litigation/Class Action Defense work. The organization's in-depth research of law firms to assess strengths in this practice area culminated in only 54 firms nationwide selected to receive the accolade, spotlighting the small number of firms in the country that have a truly national presence with the capability to handle sophisticated and complex antitrust work.

Praised for its "unparalleled expertise in antitrust matters, coupled with outstanding litigation skills," Eimer Stahl's antitrust practice combines decades of experience with a creative approach to antitrust litigation, consistently striving to deliver the best results to clients in their most important matters. Clients told The Legal 500 researchers they rely on Eimer Stahl for "bet-the-company litigation" and also noted the firm "understands how large companies operate," emphasizing efficient budget management with in-house discovery services and transparent billing.

Rankings are based on a series of criteria, but simply put by The Legal 500, "we highlight the practice area teams who are providing the most cutting edge and innovative advice to corporate counsel." Research is based on client feedback, law firm submissions, and interviews with leading lawyers.
